Why do you want to serve on the Chamber board?	As the CEO of FiCare Federal Credit Union, I have dedicated my career to building strong financial partnerships within the healthcare community and beyond. I believe serving on the Chamber board is an opportunity to further connect local businesses, nonprofits, and community leaders in ways that strengthen economic growth and enhance quality of life in our region.
What skills or expertise can you bring to the Chamber board?	I bring over 15 years of leadership as CEO of FiCare Federal Credit Union, where I've guided growth, led acquisitions, and built strong community partnerships. My strengths are in strategic planning, financial expertise, and connecting people and organizations to create opportunities. I'm also passionate about mentoring young professionals and serving as a voice for businesses in our community.

Will other non-profit or professional commitments prevent you from fulfilling your commitment to the Chamber board? If yes, what are they?	no.
Board members are expected to serve on or chair a committee. In which area can you contribute your expertise or work?	Finance
What community organizations have you previously served?	I currently serve as Chair of the Healthcare Credit Union Association and on the Board of Directors for the League of Southeastern Credit Unions. Locally, I am Board Treasurer for Learning Gate Community School and an active member of the Tampa Chapter for Young Professionals. I also serve on the Region Council for Leadership Florida, am a graduate and previous board member of Leadership Tampa Bay, and volunteer with initiatives such as CEOs in Schools and the Children's Miracle Network.
What aspect of board service appeals to you?	What excites me most about board service is the opportunity to collaborate with other community leaders to make a real impact. I enjoy bringing people together, sharing ideas, and helping shape strategies that strengthen both businesses and the community. Serving on a board allows me to contribute my experience while also learning from others, which I find both rewarding and energizing.
What do you hope to gain from board service?	I hope to expand my connections with local leaders, gain fresh perspectives from peers in different industries, and continue growing as a community leader. Board service also gives me the opportunity to better understand the needs of our business community so I can bring those insights back to my work and strengthen the partnerships that help our region thrive.
